
Name and title: Dr Nicholas Holyoak

Current position: Lecturer
College of Science and Engineering, Flinders University

Qualifications: BEng(Civil)(Hons), University of South Australia
PhD, University of South Australia

Membership of professional bodies:
Member, Engineers Australia
Member, Institute of Transportation Engineers
Committee Member, Australian Institute of Transport Planning and Management (AITPM)

Recent academic appointment record (last 10 years):
Research Fellow, University of South Australia (2004-2014)
Research Fellow/Lecturer, Flinders University (2014-present)

Contributions to educational development:
Development and refinement of delivered material into a range of topics, adopting best teaching practice and technologies for effective teaching and learning.

Field of engineering research and publication count:
33 conference and journal articles
15 Research Reports

Previous industry appointments:
Transport Modeller: Maunsell McIntyre (Aus) and Transport Analyst: WSP Group (UK).

Collaboration and consulting with industry:
Various research activity with private, government and other agencies including SA DPTI, NSW BTS, QED Transport Solutions, World Bank, Economic and Policy Services Pty Ltd.

Other relevant professional activity:
Active committee member with the AITPM's Transport Modelling Network, Engineers Australia's Transport Australia Society and the Australasian Transport Research Forum Technical and Organisational committees.